The centrum ovale

- A central white matter area that exhibits a traffic jam of axons

- Found by taking the leftovers after removing the thumbs or interlobular structures which include the thumbs and a ~0.5mm fudge factor.

- If the centrum ovale becomes a polygon, could smooth.
Lateral Ventricles

Caudate

Putamen

Nucleus Accumbens

Globus Pallidus

C + P + NAC = "Striatum"

GPe + GPi + P

Lentiform Nucleus

miswritten
The cingulate sulcus is never a continuous single groove. It is broken up, doubled up, and the actual...